

I pay for my phone service like everyone else does. The loopholes allowing ANYONE to solicit me in the privacy of my own home are completely unacceptable.

TV and radio stations do not allow me to call up anytime and get airtime to sell something, so why should they be allowed to do it to me?